

TEXAS MUNICIPAL CLERKS CERTIFICATION PROGRAM

Election Calendar
For a City's General Election on May 2, 2026

(dated January 6, 2026)¹

Abbreviations are the same as those in the Texas Municipal Election Law Manual (6th edition) [M] with a green cover. SOS form numbers are provided as a convenience not a requirement.

This calendar presumes that SB 2753 will NOT be implemented in May 2026; the calendar will be updated if the situation changes. SB 2753 eliminates the gap between early voting by personal appearance and election day and changes the early voting period, among other things highlighted in yellow in this calendar. The Secretary of State will implement SB 2753 after publishing a report about how to implement no later than August 1, 2027. Runoff dates appear in green rows.

This calendar does not apply to all elections. For example, to prepare a calendar for a special election to fill a vacancy in office (even one on a uniform election date), see M §12.03; for a special election on a measure, see M §12.12. This calendar omits actions that vary from one city to another (for example, preparation of voting equipment). Each city secretary should use the chart at M §1.62 to create a personal election calendar.

Dates in column 1 are 2026 unless noted otherwise. Actions in column 2 relate to general elections (those in italics pertain to early voting). Actions are typically taken by the city secretary; deviations appear in column 3. Column 4 is a cross reference to the Elections Manual. If this cross reference includes a year, then refer to the updated page, not the originally printed one.

"ED Interval" in column 5 is the time between the date of the action and election day. For example, the notation "-50" in the entry for March 13 means mandatory office hours begin the 50th day before election day; the notation "+40" in the entry for June 11 means that the LAST DAY for mandatory office hours is the 40th day after election day. (For office hours on holidays, see endnote 6 regarding new law). An asterisk (*) in column 5 indicates the time stated is not required by statute. Not all due dates revolve around election day and are so noted.

The last column has been reserved to show completion of the event in column 2. A dashed line in the table between entries indicates separate events that fall on the same day.

When reading the Election Code, read the chapter and subchapter titles to determine if the section applies to cities. Not all sections apply. Note that counties cannot order elections of their own in May of even-numbered years and may decline to contract with cities at that time.

¹ Changes from 11/1/25 version: (1) added hyperlink to SOS proclamation for the runoff; (2) added note to 4/21 to explain impact of the San Jacinto holiday; (3) corrected first day of early voting in the runoff to 6/1 [not 6/2]; corrected last day for applications for ballot by mail to 4/20 [not 4/22]; (4) added weekend/holiday exceptions to endnote 6.

Endnotes

1. Any city imposing an ad valorem property tax must have a website. [Tax §26.18] The following information must be posted on a city's website [M §2.13(d)]:

(1) the city's contact information, including a mailing address, telephone number, and e-mail address;

(2) each elected officer of the city;

(3) the date and location of the next election for officers of the city;

(4) the requirements and deadline for filing for candidacy of each elected office of the city for the next election (posted one year prior to the date of that election);

(5) notice of city council meetings; and

(6) minutes of city council meetings.

A city with population of less than 5,000 located in a county with population of less than 25,000 does not have to post (5) and (6). [GC §2051.201].

2. The city's governing body may choose to conduct a mock student election under EC §276.007. The major steps taken for a general election should be taken for a student election. The student election may be held on the first day before the election, but results must not be published until after the polls close on election day.

3. Follow home-rule city's charter provision, if any. However, a home-rule city cannot alter the candidate filing deadline. [EC 143.005(a)].

4. If a candidate dies on or before the filing deadline, the City Secretary MAY remove the candidate from the ballot, in which case, the filing deadline is extended 5 days. If that extended filing deadline for filing falls on a weekend or holiday, it moves to the next business day. Withdrawal deadlines after the extended filing deadlines will be impacted.

5. See Texas Ethics Commission rules [1 TAC §18.31] for the full list of reporting triggers and dollar amounts. The following is a summary of the most common amounts [M Ch. 3]:

Election Code §	Threshold Description	Original Amount	2025 Amount	2026 Amount
253.031(b)	PAC: amount of contributions or expenditures before appointment of treasurer is required.	$500	$1,080	$1,110
254.036	Electronic Filing Exemption : amount at or below which a filer may qualify.	$20,000	$33,910	$34,890
254.095	Local officeholders, contributions : amount over which reporting is required.	$500	$1,110	$1,140
254.181 254.182 254.183	Candidate or specific-purpose PAC, modified reporting : contribution or expenditure amount at or below which filers may avoid pre-election reports.	$500	$1,110	$1,140

6. See M §1.52 & §6.80. Under EC §1.006, if a deadline falls on a Sat., Sun., or legal state/national holiday, the deadline moves to the next regular business day. Exceptions where the deadline moves to the first preceding regular business day: EC §84.007 (general rule for applications for ballot by mail); §86.0015 (deadline for certain ABBM based on disability). Under EC §85.001, early voting by personal appearance includes weekends and holidays unless the first day is one of these, moving the start date to the next business day. NEW LAW: HB640 defines a “regular business day” as the day when the city’s main office is regularly open for business. Thus, you do not need to conduct mandatory office hours on a city holiday such as Good Friday or the Battle of Flowers. The following are Election Code holidays unless noted otherwise in italics:

Political and Campaign Signs

Right of Way Division

Interstate and Primary Highways

During campaign season, the landscape blooms with a special kind of flower - the political sign. Unlike wildflowers which are welcome anywhere, putting campaign signs on public lands is illegal. So before you plant that sign, learn the law and keep Texas beautiful.

TxDOT only controls the location of commercial signs, and never controls the content of any signage. If you have questions about what may be on a political sign, please contact the Texas Ethics Commission at (512) 463-5800.

Frequently Asked Questions

Where can I place political signs?

You can place your signs anywhere so long as they are:

- 1) not in the highway right of way;
- 2) not in a location that poses a safety hazard (e.g. blocking sight to a driveway); and
- 3) placed with the landowner's permission.

Always make sure to check with local authorities (cities, counties, etc.) as they may have their own restrictions on sign placement.

When can I place political signs?

Cities and counties may have their own time restrictions for political signs, however TxDOT does not enforce any timing restrictions.

There is a sign on private property posing a safety hazard

If you believe a sign or signs create a safety hazard, contact local law enforcement as they can have the owner remove or relocate their sign(s).

There are signs located on the Right of Way (ROW)

Signs cannot be placed on the ROW as per Texas Transportation Code §393.002. "A sheriff, constable, or other trained volunteer authorized by the commissioners court of a county may confiscate a sign placed in violation of Section 393.002." [TEX. TRANS. CODE §393.003]. For state-maintained highways, your local TxDOT district office also has the authority to remove signs located on state owned right of way.

Where is the ROW?

If you are unsure where the ROW starts or ends, you should contact your local TxDOT district office.

An application filed before that day is void. All fields of the application must be completed unless specifically marked optional.

For an election to be held on a uniform election date, the day of the filing deadline is the 78th day before Election Day.

If you have questions about the application, please contact the Secretary of State's Elections Division at 800-252-8683.

NEPOTISM LAW

The candidate must sign this statement indicating his awareness of the nepotism law. When a candidate signs the application, it is an acknowledgment that the candidate is aware of the nepotism law. The nepotism prohibitions of chapter 573, Government Code, are summarized below:

No officer may appoint, or vote for or confirm the appointment or employment of any person related within the second degree by affinity (marriage) or the third degree by consanguinity (blood) to the officer, or to any other member of the governing body or court on which the officer serves when the compensation of that person is to be paid out of public funds or fees of office. However, nothing in the law prevents the appointment, voting for, or confirmation of anyone who has been continuously employed in the office or employment for the following period prior to the election or appointment of the officer or member related to the employee in the prohibited degree: six months, if the officer or member is elected at an election other than the general election for state and county officers.

No candidate may take action to influence an employee of the office to which the candidate is seeking election or an employee or officer of the governmental body to which the candidate is seeking election regarding the appointment or employment of a person related to the candidate in a prohibited degree as noted above. This prohibition does not apply to a candidate's actions with respect to a bona fide class or category of employees or prospective employees.

CODE OF FAIR CAMPAIGN PRACTICES

There are basic principles of decency, honesty, and fair play that every candidate and political committee in this state has a moral obligation to observe and uphold, in order that, after vigorously contested but fairly conducted campaigns, our citizens may exercise their constitutional rights to a free and untrammelled choice and the will of the people may be fully and clearly expressed on the issues.

THEREFORE:

- (1) I will conduct the campaign openly and publicly and limit attacks on my opponent to legitimate challenges to my opponent's record and stated positions on issues.
- (2) I will not use or permit the use of character defamation, whispering campaigns, libel, slander, or scurrilous attacks on any candidate or the candidate's personal or family life.
- (3) I will not use or permit any appeal to negative prejudice based on race, sex, religion, or national origin.
- (4) I will not use campaign material of any sort that misrepresents, distorts, or otherwise falsifies the facts, nor will I use malicious or unfounded accusations that aim at creating or exploiting doubts, without justification, as to the personal integrity or patriotism of my opponent.
- (5) I will not undertake or condone any dishonest or unethical practice that tends to corrupt or undermine our system of free elections or that hampers or prevents the full and free expression of the will of the voters, including any activity aimed at intimidating voters or discouraging them from voting.
- (6) I will defend and uphold the right of every qualified voter to full and equal participation in the electoral process, and will not engage in any activity aimed at intimidating voters or discouraging them from voting.
- (7) I will immediately and publicly repudiate methods and tactics that may come from others that I have pledged not to use or condone. I shall take firm action against any subordinate who violates any provision of this code or the laws governing elections.

I, the undersigned, candidate for election to public office in the State of Texas or campaign treasurer of a political committee, hereby voluntarily endorse, subscribe to, and solemnly pledge myself to conduct the campaign in accordance with the above principles and practices.
